Remember a solitary achievement, an experience well-guided, a successful partnership, laughing with friends. No better reflection of a year remains than this.

The Class of 1980 Arrives

On August 31, 1976, approximately 250 students assembled in Fairview's auditorium to attend Freshman Orientation, sponsored by Student Government. President Alison Willis said, "The new students were very cooperative and responsive to the program." Assistant Principal Mr. Denney, responded, "Orientation assists the new students in adjusting to their surroundings." Many of the students later became involved in athletics. others excelled in academics. Aside from their achievements, however, each student added to the spirit and pride which make up Fairview High School.

Bulldogs Have an Even Record

The 76-77 Bulldogs gave every indication of a winning season, after a grueling summer workout, by winning their first game at Oakwood. Plagued by injuries the Bulldogs went on to complete an even season with a 5-5 record.

The Reserve Bulldogs displayed amazing potential in their two wins during an eight game season. Coach Potenza feels he will be able to send several players to the Varsity ranks next season.

Apathy and the small size of the players hurt the Frosh team this year. The turnout at tryouts was very small and few players who made the team were very big. None the less, the frosh played well together and finished with high hopes for years to come.

The Bulldogs completed a sound season with numerous individuals playing the kind of football many colleges desire. Five Bulldogs received full scholarships to various colleges and universities throughout the Midwest and South. Blair Brown, Don Grimes and Lonnie Harris made first team All City, Nelson Moore and Mike Scarpelli were voted onto the second team and three more seniors received Honorable Mentions (Craig Bacher, Norman Shearer, Allan Stephens). The Bulldogs also were aided by the play of Junior Kenley Starks who came off the bench when Quarterback Steve Edwards was injured early in the season. Starks was named Most Improved player of the 76-77 season.

Was the team's five wins and five losses reflective of the talent of the 76-77 Bulldogs? Not according to Coach Winters, who pointed out that three of the five losses had one touchdown or less difference.

Cheerleaders Boost Spirit

The performance of the cheerleaders during football season reflected the hours of practice by the squads. Although these hours of work were difficult and tiring, they were also filled with enjoyment.

After practicing throughout the summer, the Varsity and Reserve Squads were well prepared for the games which lay ahead. Led by Captain Sara Alford and Co-Capt. Gloria Roffe, the Varsity cheered the team on through rain, snow, and bitter cold. The dedication of each individual and the cooperation and friendship shared by each girl resulted in the squads being considered the best in the area.

The 1976-1977 Varsity Cheerleaders are

Co. Capt., S. Sells, J.
Rommiser, A. Wallis, S.
Hines, P. Chaney, A. Gardner, M. Regilanski, E.

The Fairview High School Band and Scotchettes took on a new name and a new look this year, and it all started at Band Camp. The Band wasted no time and that night the Band and Scotchettes were introduced to "Everything You Always Wanted to Know About Marching Band, But

Were Afraid to Ask!"".

After five days of 6:00 a.m. wake-up calls, sunshine, sunburn, rain, ankle deep mud, rehearsal and more drill and more rehearsal - the Band and Scotchettes were ready to start the 1976-1977 marching season in style.

Band Parents Recognize Seniors

After a long and anticipated wait the Senior Band and Scotchette members got to wear the new uniforms they waited 22 years for. To celebrate their debut - a star spangled spectacular show was planned for the Chaminade-Julienne football game. This was the Band's way of extending their sincere thanks to all the parents, students and everyone who supported all the fund raising projects that made the dream a reality.

Spirit Week, a tradition at Fairview for many years, was designed to prepare students for the biggest game of the season and give them an opportunity to show school spirit. At Fairview there has always been a favorable amount of student participation during Spirit Week. On the first night of Spirit Week, each class got together and decorated their assigned halls. Decoration night was full of hanging streamers, painting murals, blowing up balloons and finally, cleaning it all up. The Spirit Week judges were administration and faculty members who took time to judge the spirit and participation of each class.

The Roth game, rather than the traditional Meadowdale game, was chosen for spirit week. Unlike previous years, Spirit Week was celebrated separately from Homecoming. The entire week was one of combined efforts of both faculty and students, working toward one common goal. All of the classes displayed tremendous school spirit, but the most spectacular of all were the seniors. Their creativity, together with the total input of the whole class, added up to one sensational performance.

Cross Country Teams Do Well in City League

"The Girls Cross Country Team headed by Senior Denise Thompson was excellent," said Coach Borchers. The girls won every meet, placing second only to Wayne.

The Boy's Team showed tremendous potential for the 1977-1978 Cross-Country season. Mark Widdowson, who was consistently the third or fourth best runner in the city, led the team with strong endurance. "Overall," said the Coach, "both teams worked well together and practiced long hours. With the experience of this year's boy's team, I'm confident that they like the girls will uphold the pride of Fairview in the coming season."

Golf and Girls' Tennis Become Fall Sports

Coach Brown says "The Golf team did not do as well as they could have done this year, but if the returning five get their game together they could be next year's City Champs." This year's team won 3 and lost 7.

The girl's tennis team also showed great potential with a 3 and 5 record for this year. The whole team is returning next year with a great chance for being City Champs.

Tri-Delphi Presents 1976 Homecoming

The highlight of the fall season was reflected in the 1976 Homecoming Dance. The dance sponsored by the Tri-Delphi organization drew an enthusiastic crowd. The theme of the evening was "Harvest of the World," which was indicated by the backdrop of the harvest moon and traditional fall foliage. Seniors Susie Sells and Edward Knapp reigned as Homecoming King and Queen.

The 1976-77 Volleyball team showed team spirit and gained individual recognition and respect from their opponents. Coach Conway feels the team acquired "valuable experience" and showed "promise for improvement" in the future. Some outstanding players were Nancy Ponichtera, considered to be the best server on the team; Nina Farrell, for excellent team spirit; Donna Jeter, a highly respected serve returner; and Laurie Moosbrugger, also a superb server. Also commended by Coach Conway for their volleying powers: Debbie Tuckerman, Teresa Condron, Shirley Foster and Lori Newman. Belinda Rutledge and Gertude Morly played the not so glamorous position of backman, but with dedication and spirit. Not to be forgotten for their assists and spirit were Belinds Farren, Charlotte Adams, Diane Crawford and manager Irene Alexander.

Fairview Presents "Charlie Brown"

The Fairview Drama Department started the year with a musical adaptation of Charles M. Schultz's "Charlie Brown." This was a combined effort of the Music and Drama Departments.

The director, Mr. William Smith said, "It was a delightful experience dealing with the various talents of the school. My cast and the musicians were beautiful."

Miss Stall, the Instrumental Director, said, "I enjoyed working with the pit and the vocalists. It was really a pleasure to see the kids get so involved."

After many weeks of preparation, the cast presented the musical for elementary school children of the community. The response from both children and adults was one of delight with both music and acting.

Student Director Charlotte Frydman was assisted by an excellent production staff, headed by John Booher, John Godshall, and Sonny Sacks.

Seniors Provide Team Leadership

It was a hard season for this year's basketball team after being city champs last year. To say the least a lot was expected from the team, but they didn't disappoint their fans. All members did their best at every game which made for some exciting moments. The highlight of the season was Fairview's brutal beating of the strong Belmont team that had stopped last year's Bulldogs in the tournament. A strong group of seniors led the Bulldogs in rousing spirit.

Girl's Basketball Team Finishes an Excellent Season

This year the 1976-1977 Girl's Basketball team made an all out effort to win every game. They were supported at every basketball game by the Pep Club and student body. With the coaching of Miss Arnette Jackson and the support of everyone, the girls proved to excel in this sport and giving every effort they had to pull through till the last second of the game. Although our team plays better when supported by an enthusiastic student body. The pep club worked to provide this support by sponsoring two dances and sponsoring an athletic contest at the school's athletic activities. Returning players from the previous year were Debbie Thompson, Sheri Ivy Foster, Barbara Brooks, and Hall among others which displayed excellence during this season.

Academic and Classroom Activities Are Interrupted

Through January and February, everyone knew if school was going to be opened it would be through the back because of the emergency cross-country heavy snows. All schools were finally closed for the last week in January and first in February and re-opened on February 16. This was a bad time to close school because classes were interrupted and the work to be done had to be dropped until school re-opened. Despite all this the faculty and students came back and gave it their best. An optimistic outlook for the future prevailed.

Wrestlers Place in City and District

The 1976-77 wrestling squad had a great year with a 6-1 overall record and a third place finish in the City Tournament. "This was the best that Fairview team has ever done in the City Tournament," said Coach Smith. Everyone was quite pleased with Blair Brown's performance this year. He was 1st in the Sectionals and Districts and was the first Fairview Wrestler to ever go to the State.

Other Senior wrestlers were Penny Nelson, Terry Thomas, Mike Atwood, Rodney Ferguson, and Walter Tripp.

Band Presents Zampogna II

On March 1, 1977 the Parkway High School band presented an entertaining concert of song and dance. The program consisted of eight musical numbers including "Fame and Fortune" and "A Good Woman at Sea." The group performed in two sets of songs and dances. The latter half of the concert featured the band playing "Zampogna II" as the band played "Zampogna II".

The evening was an enjoyable one for all who attended.

*Seniors Direct
One Acts*

Seven senior drama students produced one-act plays as the theater's season final event. Directors were Nancy Ponichtera, Julie Young, Diane Lieberman, Susan Kolze, John Booher, John Godshall, and Ken Kirkendall.

The plays provide directing experiences for underclassmen and enjoyment for the audiences.

Seniors Lead Team in Winning Season

Captain and first singles player, Ed Knapp, captured second place in the city and led his team to a 7-2 city record, tying Stivers-Patterson for second place. Captain Knapp lost only one match in city play and with the help of MVP Gary Rosenbaum (8-1) and senior Rick Mayerson,

The first doubles team of Aaron Rodgers and Mark Mattis (in city play) and the second doubles team of Ealy Mays and Gary Pavlosky also played an integral part in securing a winning season.

Student Work Displayed at Annual Art Show

The annual art show provided an outstanding display of student art work. One major attraction was artist Roger Crawford's portrait of retired principal, Floyd G. Norman. The entire show reflected the diversity and abilities of the excellent art program at Fairview High School.

Juniors Present Past-Time Paradise

The class of 1973 presented a Past-Time Paradise at the Junior-Senior Prom on Friday, May 17. This year's party was attended by 120 people that were all in the past time mood. The party was a success and the students who attended agreed it was the best ever. The students who attended the party received a favor in place of the 1973 class ring. The favor was a small box with a picture of the class in hand. I passed out the favors and the students who attended the party

Seniors Select Favorites

These are the individuals chosen as senior favorites. These students received the highest number of votes in a classwide poll taken in the spring. For each of the sixteen categories, students chose the girl and boy whom they felt best fit the subjects. The categories included areas of personality ranging from quietness to talkativeness, and achievement areas such as athletics and talent.

Baccalaureate Held at Temple Israel

The 1977 Baccalaureate was held at Temple Israel on May 20 at 8:00. The Baccalaureate service was unique in that all the speakers were teachers of graduating seniors. These speakers were Rev. Iver James Jr. of the Collegiate Hill Church of Christ, Rev. H. Hodge of the Harris Memorial Church, and Rabbi P. Irving Bloom of Temple Israel. The Concert Choir offered inspiration to the Senior Class through their Anthem and Choral Benediction. In her solo, Sherry James sang the Lord's Prayer. Rabbi Bloom's sermon offered a message that was significant to all graduates, stressing faith in one's self, one's country, and one's God.

Seniors Await Graduation

As the school year draws to a close, seniors are preparing for graduation. The students are seen in various poses, some sitting and some standing, in a common area. The atmosphere is one of anticipation and reflection on the year that has passed.

NCR Scene of June 1 Graduation

In preparation for the procession, seniors fix their caps and gowns before entering the auditorium.

Together for the last time, they gathered toward the front of the auditorium for the ceremony of June 1, 1955. The graduates of Fairview High School assembled for the ceremony at the Fairview High School, Fairview, N.C.

1. The first step is to identify the problem. This involves understanding the current situation and what needs to be changed.

I have been thinking of you a great deal lately, and wondering how you are getting on. I hope you are well and happy. I have been very busy lately, but I will try to write you more often. I am still in the same place, and everything is going on as usual. I hope to hear from you soon.

I have been thinking about you a lot lately, and wondering how you are getting on. I hope you are well and happy. I have been busy with work, but I always find time to think of my friends. Please write back when you have a chance. I would love to hear from you.

Administrative Team Sets Academic Standards

Mrs. Jean D. Booker has been acting principal of Fairview High School since February of 1988. While serving as an assistant principal for eight years, Mrs. Booker worked with the faculty in improving the curriculum, attendance procedures, and the activities program.

As principal, Mrs. Booker provides the leadership in all areas of the life in Fairview High School. Mrs. Booker has stated that the past year has demonstrated a basically overall good relationship between faculty, administration and students.

Mr. Benjamin W. Montgomery

Mr. Lou Galiardi

Mr. Robert Denney

Mr. Benjamin Montgomery, Mr. Lou Galiardi, and Mr. Robert Denny served as assistant principals during the 1976-1977 school year. Aside from acting as grade level administrators the assistant principals are individually responsible for various phases of Fairview's programs, such as activities, counseling, scheduling, and attendance. Having over twenty years experience as administrators, these three men make up a strong team.

the Class of 1977

Let's go on with the world and time,
As we go on with the class of 1977
You will always be the best,
What a great day for the world,
Don't give up, the place is still new
You will succeed
With a lot of love
